ANNOUNCEMENTS

MANY THANKS to all who helped with special activities for this Easter season! Special thanks go to Gail Mayer and her helpers for arranging for the Easter lilies and hydrangeas to decorate the sanctuary today, and for decorating the cross in the pulpit. Thanks to Robin Ruleman and Theresa Moore for coordinating the Easter Fellowship Breakfast today. Everyone who participated in our special activities and worship services – thanks for all that you do!

THE ONE GREAT HOUR OF SHARING OFFERING will be received today. You may give money you saved using the Fish Banks, or you can make a contribution by cash or check. Hebron designates our OGHS gifts to support the Presbyterian Hunger Program and Presbyterian Disaster Assistance. This year is the 70th anniversary of the beginning of OGHS, which was started in the U.S. in 1949 to help people in need following World War II. The offering is supported by multiple denominations and continues to help people nationally and internationally.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH of Waynesboro will host a potluck dinner and a workshop on “Endings and Beginnings: Life Changes in Our Later Years,” on Wednesday, April 24. Admission is free. The potluck dinner begins at 5:30 p.m. and the program starts around 6:15 p.m. led by the Rev. Dr. John “Brad” Langdon. The presentation will address opportunities and challenges created by the realities of aging. Contact First Presbyterian Church (540-949-8366 or church@firstpresway.com) with questions.

MOSAIC HANDBELL ENSEMBLE'S spring concert will be Sunday, April 28, at 4:30 p.m. at Central United Methodist Church, 14 N. Lewis St., Staunton. Mosaic is an advanced community ensemble that includes handbell musicians from throughout the Shenandoah Valley, including Hebron church secretary Rhonda Welfare. The group's repertoire includes both sacred and secular music. The concert is free and no tickets are required. Donations are accepted.

PREPARING FOR WORSHIP – Please be considerate of, and sensitive to, other people's preparation for worship. Fellowship, greetings and conversation are encouraged, and welcomed before and after the worship service. However, please enter the sanctuary reverently, and when the prelude begins, end unnecessary movement. If you speak, please do so softly so as not to distract others who are preparing for worship. Thank you!
