CHURCH PICNIC TODAY – Instead of Lemonade on the Lawn today, Hebron will have Lunch on the Lawn after worship. Hamburgers, hot dogs, side dishes and beverages will be provided by the church. You don't have to prepare any food – just be sure to join us for this time of food and fellowship!

PLEASE WELCOME OUR GUEST PASTOR: Roxana Mebane Atwood was born and raised in Wilmington, NC. She and her husband, Jim (a fellow pastor), have two children and four grandchildren. Together they spent nine years as missionaries in Japan. Later in her career, Roxana spent several years as pastor at Presbyterian Churches in Burke, VA, Washington, DC and Arlington, VA before retiring in June 2000. Please welcome her to Hebron and thank her for being a substitute pastor for us this Sunday!

SUMMER HOURS AND LEMONADE ON THE LAWN will continue during June, July and August. If you would like to help out, a sign-up sheet will be posted for Lemonade on the Lawn.

PASTOR ON VACATION – Pastor Frank is on vacation this week. If you have a pastoral emergency, please contact the church office at 885-1648 or Joann Weikert, chair of the Congregational Ministries Committee, at 292-4374, and they will secure someone to help you with your need. We will have guest ministers at worship this week and next, so please try to attend worship and welcome them to Hebron. Pastor Frank will be back in the office on Tuesday, July 1.

NO BIBLE STUDY JUNE 25 – While Pastor Frank is on vacation, Wednesday morning Bible Study will not be held, but will resume on July 2. The topic will be the reigns of King Manasseh and King Josiah of Judah (2 Kings 21-23, and 2 Chronicles 33-35), and the capture and destruction of Jerusalem by the Babylonians under King Nebuchadnezzar (2 Kings 24-25, and 2 Chronicles 36).

THE PEP CLUB WILL MEET on Wednesday, June 25. This is one of the special meetings that will not be held at Hebron. Please join us at 1:00 p.m. at the Texas Steakhouse at 134 Rowe Rd. in Staunton for a "dutch treat" lunch!
