YOUTH SUNDAY TODAY – Hebron is observing Youth Sunday today, with members of the Hebron Youth Group leading our worship service. Also during the service, we will receive Tara Cahill and Taylor McNeal as new members. Please greet and welcome our new members after the service, and thank the church youth for leading our worship today!

NO JUNIOR CHURCH TODAY – Junior Church will not be held today, so that our children can see Hebron Youth Group members Tara Cahill and Taylor McNeal join the church. On Sundays without a major part of the service involving our young people, Junior Church is held for grades K through 5, with children in this age group invited to go to Junior Church following the Children's Lesson.

'THANK YOU' FOR PW YARD SALE! – Many thanks to everyone who helped with last week's Yard, Bake & Jelly Sale sponsored by the Presbyterian Women! Proceeds go to support the Staunton/Beverley Manor Weekday Religious Education Program. Thanks to everyone who donated items, volunteered their time, or purchased items at the sale. All unsold items were donated to Love In the Name of Christ (Love INC) of Waynesboro.

KITCHEN UPDATES ARE UNDER WAY! – The Property Committee is hard at work on repairs and upgrades to our kitchen. Work began with Noah Turnage, Tom Cook, Robert Christian, Fred Smiley, Allen Martin and others removing the kitchen island and the old flooring and adhesives underneath, so that new tile can be laid down. Please be patient and bear with the committee as they make additional improvements. Also, anyone who might have any personal items, appliances or equipment in the kitchen is asked to take them home while everything is moved and re-arranged to accommodate the work being done.

PEP CLUB CANCELED – The PEP Club will not meet in April due to the ongoing work in the kitchen, which will not be completed by the next scheduled meeting date of April 29. The group decided to cancel April's meeting, and will meet next on May 27.
