ANNOUNCEMENTS

LENTEN CANDLES ~ On this first Sunday in Lent, we light the candles of the Lenten Wreath which will gradually fade into darkness as the crucifixion of Jesus Christ nears. For more information about our Lenten Wreath, refer to the March edition of the Hebron Herald.

WELCOME to Sean Dye who is our guest organist while Joel is out of town for the Organ Factory. Sean has substituted for us before, and we are happy to see him back!

FROM THE SESSION ~ During the last two years the Hebron session has worked hard to discern the best policies for dealing with the problems of the Covid-19 pandemic. At the stated March meeting, the session acted to resume singing hymns on Sunday, March 13th. Masking mandates have been lifted in many public institutions. The session now asks that people consider for themselves what is best as to wearing masks in worship, given their own health concerns. Let us be mindful that all of us are somewhere between very ready and much less ready to move on from the pandemic restrictions of the past two years. Honoring each other's decisions will add to the fellowship of Hebron Presbyterian Church.

EASTER FLOWERS ~ It's time to place orders for lilies and hydrangeas to decorate the sanctuary for Easter. They both come in 6.5" pots; the lilies are $12 and the hydrangeas are $14. Forms and money are due March 21. Checks should be made to Hebron Presbyterian Church.

ONE GREAT HOUR OF SHARING is Presbyterians coming together worldwide to share God's love with our neighbors-in-need around the world by providing relief from natural disasters, food for the hungry, and support for the poor and oppressed. Please see the article "It's Time for Fish Banks!" in last month's newsletter for more information on the OGHS. Fish banks and checks will be collected during the regular worship service on Easter Sunday, April 17th. Expect to receive materials and giving envelopes throughout the months of March and April. Remember, every gift makes a difference in the life of someone who deserves God's love and support.

HEBRON PW will meet at 1:00 P.M. on Tuesday, in the church library, for their regular business meeting and Bible study.

HEBRON PW HISTORIAN ~ the Presbyterian Women are seeking a volunteer for historian. Meredith Arneson has done this for several years, but health constraints necessitate her passing this duty on. She will, however, be happy to help anyone who is interested.

CLOSING OF CHURCH: If circumstances require worship service to be cancelled due to weather conditions or any other reason, it will be announced on WHSV TV. If you do not have access to local TV stations, call the church after 9 a.m. and listen to the announcements. Decisions are made by the Pastor and the Clerk of Session
