ANNOUNCEMENTS

WE WELCOME Rev. Dr. James Young honorably retired, to our pulpit this morning. Among his many calls, he has served locally at Spring Hill PC and Westminster PC in Waynesboro. He has served for over 40 years in churches in North Carolina, Virginia, Kentucky, Nevada and Maryland. In addition to his many professional services, he is musician, actor . And outdoorsman. He enjoys reading, concerts, plays, ballets and getting together with friends. He has four grown daughters, and lives in Staunton.

LEMONADE ON THE LAWN, Following worship, we gather outside (weather permitting) for fellowship and light refreshments. If raining, event will be held in the Fellowship Hall. A sign-up sheet is posted on the bulletin board outside the church office- dates still open July 24, July 31 and August 7. If you wish to help provide refreshments or if you have any questions, please contact Joan Wright at 886-0864.

ELDER OF THE MONTH ~ Theresa Moore will be the elder of the month for July.

NEXT SUNDAY ~ We will have Ed Conner as our guest speaker..

CARD OF THANKS ~ On behalf of Renewing Homes of Greater Augusta we wish to thank Hebron Church and its members for your continued support of our mission as a site sponsor for our annual Fundraiser, The Lee-Warren Queen City Century Bike Ride. Having your pretty location as the nucleus of the race, and the privilege of prepping for the ride in your Kitchen makes this fundraising event possible. Again, thank you for your support and willingness to share your facility. Sincerely, Carolyn Ford

HOSPICE REQUEST ~ Augusta Health Hospice of the Shenandoah is looking for volunteers. They are our local non-profit hospice serving Staunton, Waynesboro and Augusta County. Whether visiting patients, volunteering at Shenandoah House, helping in the office or sharing a special talent, dedicated volunteers are key members of our team. Volunteers must take the training class to be better equipped to serve our patients and their families. Training days are 7/25 from 9:00-5:30 and 7/26 from 10-3:30. Please register by 7/14, call 540-332-4977.
